Annual Report 2022

Refreshing EU relations with the world

Annual Report 2022

2022 has been a busy year for culture Solutions. The peak of the year was reached in December when the European Parliament's resolution and report on EU international cultural relations were published, uptaking numerous recommendations made by culture Solutions since 2019.

This year, there were numerous attempts to reach funding sustainability, while maintaining some activities thanks to the commitments of pro bono collaborators. cS also started to work on a refreshed governance system with a widened board and larger membership. At the end of 2022, cS was proud to count 15 active members and 2 new board members, Irina Biovir-Idier and Soumaya Gharsallah.

Quotes from portners

Superb facilitation. Very well run, motivating, energizing.

3. Business Development and Fundraising

Small contracts were signed with some EU programmes, although not large enough to create a new sustainability dynamics for the organisation.

Several attempts to launch partnerships with philanthropic foundations and EUNIC members were made.

Funding and partnership opportunites were sought for the culture and sustaianbility project.

4. Communications

In 2022, our audience kept growing. The updated figures on our newsletter and social media accounts by the end of year showed the organisation is on track to reach its target of 4000 stakeholders as per its 2019 5-year strategy.

In addition, planning of a new podcast series began, with first experiments with the College of Europe, and then first recordings in November.
